Follow Initial Protocol for All Patients

Special Considerations
- Airway, oxygenation, and ventilation should be primary focus, assisting as required - then treating treatable causes
- Agitated patients may require intervention in order to allow for proper assessment/treatment.